Homebound is going on hiatus until April 14th, 2016

My personal life has gotten very busy very quickly, and until things settle down, I won't really be able to work on the comic.

Chapter Two is almost Finished, and I had intended on taking a six week intermission when it wrapped up. Due to recent events, I'm taking that break now, and if things go according to plan, Chapter Three will begin immediately after Chapter Two ends.

I'm moving into a new place!

I'm also scrambling to get ready for convention season, starting with Sakuracon later this month!

The site will continue to be updated every Thursday,
with new guest art and more details about upcoming conventions as they draw closer.

Thank you for your patience.
